Information

Knowledge of the following information will be helpful in understanding the Constitution, By-Laws and Continuing Resolution of Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church that follows.

Several chapters of this document are preceded by an asterisk*. These chapters are required to be exactly as they appear because we are a member church of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and in order to not be in conflict with the ELCA's constitution they must appear as written.

This revision includes the by-laws and continuing resolutions in the body of the constitution, rather than as separate documents. Therefore the codification system has been designed to indicate which items are constitutional provisions, which are by-laws and which are continuing resolutions.

For example:

A constitutional provision will be represented by C11.01, where the C11 stands for Chapter 11 and the.01 is the first provision in Chapter 11

A by-law will be C11.02.01 where C11 would be Chapter 11,.02 would be part 2 of Chapter 11, and .01 would be the first by-law relating to part 2 of Chapter 11.

A continuing resolution would be C5.05.01A00 where C5.05.01 is the first provision of the continuing resolution, the letter A indicates this is the first continuing resolution, and the 00 (for 2000) represents the year it was implemented.

The last thing to note, certain numbers are missing from the numbering sequence in some chapters. These omissions are intentional. For example in some chapters “.10” and the multiples thereof have been reserved for possible use as section headings in future editions.

Chapter 1

NAME AND INCORPORATION

- C1.01 The name of this congregation shall be Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church, Glen Ellyn, IL.
- C1.02 For the purpose of this constitution and the accompanying bylaws and continuing resolutions, the congregation of Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church is hereinafter designated as “this congregation.”
- C1.03 This congregation shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois.

Chapter 2

CONFESSION OF FAITH

- *C2.01 This congregation confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- *C2.02 This congregation confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
 - a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
 - b. The proclamation of God’s message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
 - c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God’s Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God’s revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God’s Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.
- *C2.03 This congregation accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.
- *C2.04 This congregation accepts the Apostles’, Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this congregation.

1  Required provision

- *C2.05 This congregation accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the Gospel, acknowledging as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.
- *C2.06 This congregation accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord, namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the Church.
- *C2.07 This congregation confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scripture and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the Church for God’s mission in the world.

Chapter 3

NATURE OF THE CHURCH

- *C3.01 All power in the Church belongs to our Lord Jesus Christ, its head. All actions of this congregation are to be carried out under his rule and authority.
- *C3.02 This church confesses the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church and is resolved to serve Christian unity throughout the world.
- *C3.03 The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.
- *C3.04 This church, inspired and led by the Holy Spirit, participates in The Lutheran World Federation as a global communion of churches, engaging in faithful witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ and in service for the sake of God’s mission in the world.
- *C3.05 The name Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA or “this church”) as used herein refers in general references to this whole church, including its three expressions: congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization. The name Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is also the name of the corporation of the churchwide organization to which specific references may be made herein.

C5.05.01.A.00 The Endowment Fund – Continuing Resolution

Purpose:

The Endowment Fund for this congregation is established for enhancing the mission outreach, programs, capital improvement, major building maintenance, debt reduction, general congregational operations for the benefit of this congregation, and as a reflection of our gratitude to God for our continued blessings. It provides an opportunity to share our accumulated resources through will and estate planning for God’s work in this congregation.

Rationale:

Christian stewardship involves the faithful management of all God’s gifts. The Scripture teaches us that, all we are and all we have is entrusted to us by God. Stewardship should, therefore, include sharing our accumulated, inherited and appreciated resources, not only our current income.

C5.05.02.A00 Administration:

The Fund is overseen by the Endowment Fund Committee of Trustees (“Committee”). The Committee is comprised of five trustees. Three Trustees-at-large are elected for staggered terms of three years; the remaining two include the Senior Pastor and President of the Congregation Council. Trustees-at-large are nominated by majority vote of the Congregation Council and elected at the Annual Meeting of this congregation by majority vote. Current Congregation Council Members other than its President shall be ineligible to serve as trustees. Initially, one trustee is elected for a term of one year, another for a term of two years and the third for a term of three years. Thereafter, one Trustee-at-large is elected for a three-year term at each Annual Meeting. Other than the Senior Pastor and the President of the Congregation Council, no Trustee-at-large shall serve for more than two consecutive terms.

Each year at its first meeting, the Trustees shall elect a Chair and a Secretary. The Trustees shall meet at least quarterly, or on the call of the Chair or any other two trustees. The Secretary shall keep minutes of each meeting, recording the votes of the trustees on action taken. Two Trustees-at-large and either the Senior Pastor or the President of the Congregation Council shall constitute a quorum.

C5.05.03.A00 Responsibilities of the Trustees:

1. Oversee the investment and management of the Fund, including liquidating any gifts which are received in a form other than cash.
2. Encourage unrestricted gifts to the Fund.
3. Present at least one informational program annually to inform the congregation of opportunities for giving through the Fund.
4. Review gifts which are restricted or given for designated purposes and determine which is the appropriate account for the receipt of such gift. The trustees can refer decision on such matters to the Congregational Council for appropriate action, if needed..
5. Record all gifts. The Trustees shall keep a record of all gifts to and expenditures from the Fund.
6. The Fund shall be audited annually. The findings and any recommendations of the auditor shall be reviewed by the trustees and reported to the Congregation Council.
7. The trustees shall prepare and present a report at least annually to this congregation at its annual meeting. Whenever gifts are received or money is used from the Fund, this congregation is to be informed through bulletin announcements, newsletter articles and/or by electronic means. However, the trustees shall respect wishes of donors regarding confidentiality.

C5.05.04.A00 Investments Within the Fund

In order to fulfill the purpose of the Fund while accommodating specific requests or designations of donors, the Trustees shall maintain two separate accounts within the Fund:

a] The Permanent Endowment Account

This account shall receive those gifts which are designated as permanent endowments. The income shall be available for distribution. The following limitations on distributions shall apply to the permanent Endowment Account:

1. A minimum of 20% shall be distributed for local, national, or global outreach assistance.

2. A minimum of 20% shall be distributed for new congregational programs or expansion of existing programs.
3. A minimum of 20% shall be distributed for capital improvements, major building maintenance, or debt reduction.
4. Up to 40% shall be distributed for discretionary uses as recommended by the Trustees and approved by the Congregation Council. While the purpose of the Fund is not to supplant or supplement giving for general church operations, the Trustees are empowered, with approval of the Congregation Council, to consider this as a discretionary use if they find extraordinary circumstances so dictate.
5. Up to 5% of the principal's value as determined as of the last day of the year may be expended or encumbered by the Trustees, with approval of the Congregation Council during the succeeding year if they find extraordinary circumstances so dictate.

b) The Specific Purpose Gift Account:

This account shall receive gifts to the Endowment Fund which are designated by the donor for a specific purpose and where both principal and income may be distributed according to the donor's wishes. If, due to a change of circumstances, the donor's wishes cannot be carried out, the Trustees, with permission of Congregation Council, may distribute the funds in a different manner or to different recipients for purposes similar to those designated by donors.

The Trustees are prohibited from making any distributions which support propaganda or other attempts to influence legislation or which support political campaigns on behalf of any candidate for public office.

C5.05.05.A00 Investment Objectives:

1. To preserve and protect principal.
2. To achieve a level of capital growth that recognizes the need for regular distribution.

C5.05.06.A00 General Provisions:

1. Any of the provisions of this section shall be enacted or amended by a majority vote of a meeting of the congregation or a two-thirds vote of all voting members of the Congregation Council. See C.18.02
2. The Trustees shall enjoy the same immunity from suit as does the Congregation Council of this church.
3. The Fund will be dissolved only in the event of the complete dissolution of Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church of Glen Ellyn, Illinois, at which time the Fund and all of the assets will be distributed in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws and Continuing Resolutions of this congregation.

4. In recognition of this congregation's 50th Anniversary and in order to encourage growth of the Fund, the first fifty contributors to the fund (either by way of cash gift or a specific bequest or a residue or remainder designation in a will or trust) were named Founding Stewards and were appropriately recognized. A similar process will be used for the congregation's 75th anniversary, with the first 75 contributors named and recognized as Continuing Stewards.

Prior to disciplinary action, reconciliation and repentance will be attempted following Matthew 18:15–17, proceeding through these successive steps, as necessary: a) private counsel and admonition by the pastor, b) censure and admonition by the pastor in the presence of two or three witnesses, c) written referral of the matter by the Congregation Council to the vice president of the synod, who will refer it to a consultation panel drawn from the Consultation Committee of the synod, and d) written referral of the matter by the consultation panel to the Committee on Discipline of the synod. If, for any reason, the pastor is unable to administer the admonitions required by paragraphs a. and b. hereof, those steps may be performed by another pastor chosen by the Executive Committee of the Congregation Council.
- *C15.02 The process for discipline of a member of this congregation shall be governed as prescribed by the chapter on discipline in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. If the counseling, censure, and admonitions pursuant to *C15.01 do not result in repentance and amendment of life, charges against the accused member(s) that are specific and in writing may be prepared by the Congregation Council, signed, and submitted to the vice president of the synod. The vice president shall select from the synod's Consultation Committee a panel of five members (three laypersons and two ministers of Word and Sacrament). A copy of the written charges shall be provided to the consultation panel and the accused member(s). The consultation panel, after requesting a written reply to the charges from the accused member(s), shall consider the matter and seek a resolution by means of investigation, consultation, mediation, or whatever other means may seem appropriate. The panel's efforts to reach a mutually agreeable resolution shall continue for no more than 45 days after the matter is submitted to it.
- *C15.03 If the consultation panel fails to resolve the matter, that panel shall refer the case in writing, including the written charges and the accused member's reply, to the Committee on Discipline of the synod for a hearing. A copy of the panel's written referral shall be delivered to the vice president of the synod, the Congregation Council, and the accused member(s) at the same time it is sent to the Committee on Discipline of the synod. The Executive Committee of the Synod Council shall then select six members from the Committee on Discipline to decide the case and shall appoint a member of the Synod Council to preside as nonvoting chair. Those six members, plus the nonvoting chair, comprise the discipline hearing panel for deciding the case. The Congregation Council and the accused member(s) are the parties to the case.

The decision of the discipline hearing panel shall be implemented by the Congregation Council and recorded in the minutes of the next council meeting.

C15.10 Adjudication

C15.11 When there is disagreement between or among factions within this congregation on a substantive issue which cannot be resolved by the parties, members of this congregation may petition the synod bishop for consultation after informing the president of this congregation of their intent to do so. The synod bishop shall seek a timely resolution of the dispute. If the issue relates directly to the pastor, the bishop may begin the process in +S14.18.d. In all other matters, if the bishop's consultation fails to resolve the issue, the bishop shall refer the matter to the Consultation Committee of the synod, which shall undertake efforts to find an appropriate solution. If the Consultation Committee's efforts fail to resolve the dispute, the entire matter shall be referred to the Synod Council for adjudication by whatever process the Council deems necessary. The Synod Council's decision shall be final.
